Describing Your Best Friend

Zora

Allan is my best friend. I have known him for many years. We do a lot of things together because we have similar interests. We both love bands like "Snow Patrol" and "Yellow Card. He loves cheese and bacon pizza and so do I. We even like the same films - "The Matrix", "Quantum of Solace" and "The Dark Knight." The only thing, we disagree on is actresses - I like Keira Knightly but he doesn't, he thinks Kirsten Dunst is much better and prettier.

Allan and I first met when I was eight years old. My family had just moved to Halifax from Toronto and he was the first person to say "Hello" to me on my first day at school. Ever since then, we have been best friends. He has a great sense of humour and he can make people laugh. He is also very intelligent, kind and a good person. In short, Allan is the best friend a person could ever have.
